Item 5. Other Events.

ACQUISITION OF BRANCH OFFICES AND RELATED TRUST OPERATIONS FROM THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK. Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company ("M&T Bank") has completed its acquisition of 32 branches in New York State from The Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase"). The branches are located in the Binghamton (13), Jamestown (9), Buffalo (7), Corning (2) and Albany/Schenectady (1) areas of upstate New York. As of the date of the branch acquisition transaction, M&T Bank acquired approximately $600 million in retail and business banking deposits, approximately $100 million in municipal balances, and approximately $40 million in loans. The acquired branches became branches of M&T Bank as of the close of business on September 24, 1999.

Chase also has agreed to transfer approximately $533 million of trust and fiduciary account assets to M&T Bank following the receipt of required approvals and the satisfaction of necessary closing conditions. It is expected that this aspect of the acquisition will be completed in two phases, commencing as early as the end of September 1999 and concluding at or about the end of March 2000.

Disclosure that M&T Bank and Chase had entered into an agreement providing for these transactions was previously reported by M&T Bank Corporation in its Current Report on Form 8-K dated June 1, 1999.
