ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On August 27, 2012, M&T Bank Corporation, a New York corporation (“M&T”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Hudson City Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Hudson City”) and Wilmington Trust Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of M&T (“WTC”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Hudson City will merge with and into WTC, with WTC continuing as the surviving entity (the “Merger”).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger, Hudson City stockholders will have the right to receive, at their election (but subject to proration and adjustment procedures as specified in the Merger Agreement), either 0.08403 of a share of common stock, par value $0.50 per share, of M&T (the “M&T Common Stock”) or cash having a value equal to 0.08403 multiplied by the average closing price of a share of M&T Common Stock for the ten trading days immediately preceding the completion of the Merger. Elections by Hudson City stockholders will be prorated and adjusted such that in the aggregate approximately 60% of Hudson City’s outstanding shares of common stock will be converted into the right to receive shares of M&T Common Stock and the balance into the right to receive cash consideration.

Consummation of the Merger remains subject to certain customary conditions, including, among others, governmental filings and regulatory approvals and expiration of applicable waiting periods, accuracy of specified representations and warranties of the other party, and material compliance by the other party with its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

The audited consolidated financial statements of Hudson City as of December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011 and for the years ended December 31, 2012, December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, as included in Item 8 of Part II of Hudson City’s Annual Report on Form 10-K (the “Hudson City Annual Report”), as well as the accompanying notes and schedules included in Item 15. “Exhibits, Financial Statement Schedules” of the Hudson City Annual Report, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on February 28, 2013, and the unaudited consolidated financial statements of Hudson City for the three months ended September 30, 2013 and September 30, 2012, respectively, and the nine months ended September 30, 2013 and September 30, 2012, respectively, as included in Item 1 of Part I of Hudson City’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2013, as filed with the SEC on November 8, 2013, are incorporated by reference into this Current Report.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 giving M&T’s expectations or predictions of future financial or business performance or conditions. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “target,” “estimate,” “continue,” “positions,” “prospects” or “potential,” by future conditional verbs such as “will,” “would,” “should,” “could” or “may”, or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties which change over time. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and we assume no duty to update forward-looking statements.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in M&T’s reports filed with the SEC and those identified elsewhere in this filing, the following factors among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance: ability to obtain regulatory approvals and meet other closing conditions to the Merger, including approval by M&T and Hudson City shareholders, on the expected terms and schedule; delay in closing the Merger; difficulties and delays in integrating the M&T and Hudson City businesses or fully realizing cost savings and other benefits; business disruption following the Merger; changes in asset quality and credit risk; the inability to sustain revenue and earnings growth; changes in interest rates and capital markets; inflation; customer acceptance of M&T products and services; customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices; customer disintermediation; the introduction, withdrawal, success and timing of business initiatives; competitive conditions; the inability to realize cost savings or revenues or to implement integration plans and other consequences associated with mergers, acquisitions and divestitures; economic conditions; and the impact, extent and timing of technological changes, capital management activities, and other actions of the Federal Reserve Board and legislative and regulatory actions and reforms.

Important Additional Information.
