Item 8.01. Other Information

On April 13, 2013 M&T Bank Corporation (“M&T”), Hudson City Bancorp, Inc. (“Hudson City”) and Wilmington Trust Corporation, a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of M&T (“Merger Sub”), entered into an amendment (the “Amendment”) to that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of August 27, 2012, by and among M&T, Hudson City and Merger Sub, pursuant to which, among other things, Hudson City will merge with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub continuing as the surviving corporation (the “Merger”).

The Amendment (1) extends, from August 27, 2013 to January 31, 2014, the date after which either M&T or Hudson City can elect to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger has not yet been completed, (2) specifies certain actions that Hudson City may take prior to the consummation of the Merger, including with respect to Hudson City’s conduct of business, retiree benefits, retention incentives and certain other matters with respect to Hudson City personnel, notwithstanding the covenants and agreements in the Merger Agreement that prohibit Hudson City from taking certain actions prior to such time, and (3) provides that if (i) Hudson City receives an alternative acquisition proposal that Hudson City’s board of directors determines, after taking into account all aspects of such proposal, is more favorable from a financial point of view to Hudson City’s stockholders than the Merger and (ii) the proposal is approved by Hudson City’s stockholders, then Hudson City may terminate the Merger Agreement, subject to payment of a termination fee to M&T.

The foregoing description of the Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 giving M&T’s expectations or predictions of future financial or business performance or conditions. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “target,” “estimate,” “continue,” “positions,” “prospects” or “potential,” by future conditional verbs such as “will,” “would,” “should,” “could” or “may”, or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties which change over time. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and we assume no duty to update forward-looking statements.

In addition to factors previously disclosed in M&T’s reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and those identified elsewhere in this filing, the following factors among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance: ability to obtain regulatory approvals and meet other closing conditions to the merger, including approval by M&T and Hudson City shareholders, on the expected terms and schedule; delay in closing the merger; difficulties and delays in integrating the M&T and Hudson City businesses or fully realizing cost savings and other benefits; business disruption following the Merger; changes in asset quality and credit risk; the inability to sustain revenue and earnings growth; changes in interest rates and capital markets; inflation; customer acceptance of M&T products and services; customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices; customer disintermediation; the introduction, withdrawal, success and timing of business initiatives; competitive conditions; the inability to realize cost savings or revenues or to implement integration plans and other consequences associated with mergers, acquisitions and divestitures; economic conditions; and the impact, extent and timing of technological changes, capital management activities, and other actions of the Federal Reserve Board and legislative and regulatory actions and reforms.

Important Additional Information.

In connection with the Merger, M&T filed with the SEC on February 22, 2013 a Registration Statement on Form S-4 that includes a Joint Proxy Statement of M&T and Hudson City and a Prospectus of M&T (together with the Joint Proxy Statement, as amended, the “Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus”), as well as other relevant documents concerning the proposed transaction. The S-4 has been declared effective and the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus was first mailed to shareholders of M&T and Hudson City on or about February 27, 2013. Each of M&T and Hudson City may file other relevant documents concerning the proposed transaction. SHAREHOLDERS OF M&T AND HUDSON CITY ARE URGED TO READ THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT AND THE JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS REGARDING THE MERGER AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE SEC, AS WELL AS ANY AMENDMENTS OR SUPPLEMENTS TO THOSE DOCUMENTS WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE, BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

A free copy of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as well as other filings containing information about M&T and Hudson City, may be obtained at the SEC’s Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). ## Annex A

1. Hudson has the option to restructure or reposition its balance sheet prior to the Closing Date. This may include the repayment of borrowings, the sale and purchase of securities, the sale or securitization of mortgage loans, entering into short-term borrowings with maturities of one year and less, and any combination of the foregoing. Prior to the execution of any balance sheet restructuring or repositioning, Hudson will confer with M&T and use its reasonable efforts to ensure that no such restructuring or repositioning will result in a material decline in Hudson's capital ratios.
2. Certain vendors have been provided with a notice of contract termination. Hudson will reengage these vendors, or vendors who provide substantially similar services, for a term of no more than one year. Hudson will extend its current insurance policies for a term of no more than one year.
3. Section 6.5(a)(ii) of the Agreement provides the following: "provide each Covered Employee who retires on or before December 31 of the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs....". The date of December 31 will be replaced with "during the nine months following the Effective Time".
4. Hudson will have the ability to pay bonuses pursuant to the Executive Officer Annual Incentive Plan in respect of calendar year 2013 in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice. Hudson will have the ability to pay bonuses pursuant to the Executive Officer Annual Incentive Plan in respect of calendar year 2014, which bonuses will be paid prior to the Effective Time. Bonus amounts for 2014 will be calculated pro-rata for the period from January 1, 2014 to the Closing Date. Total amounts paid pursuant to the Executive Officer Annual Incentive Plan will not exceed $13.0 million for calendar year 2013 and $15.0 million for calendar year 2014, with such maximum amount for 2014 to be prorated for the number of days from January 1, 2014 to the Closing Date. No payment to an officer of a bonus in excess of his target amount shall be taken into account for purposes of calculating his severance benefits under any employment agreement or change of control agreement with Hudson or Hudson Bank (and prior to paying any such bonus in excess of the target bonus, Hudson or Hudson Bank, as the case may be, will enter into an amendment to the relevant agreement for the sole purpose of providing that bonuses in excess of target shall not be taken into account). With respect to bonus payments for calendar year 2014, participants must be employed immediately prior to the Effective Time to be eligible to receive the payment. Individual bonuses for officers who are party to an employment agreement or change of control agreement with Hudson or Hudson Bank will be capped at twice their target amount.
5. Hudson will have the ability to pay bonuses pursuant to the Profit Incentive Plan in respect of calendar year 2013 in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice. Hudson will have the ability to pay bonuses pursuant to the Profit Incentive Plan in respect of calendar year 2014, which bonuses will be paid prior to the Effective Time. Bonus amounts for 2014 will be calculated pro-rata for the period from January 1, 2014 to the Closing Date. With respect to bonus payments for calendar year 2014, participants must be employed immediately prior to the Effective Time to be eligible to receive the payment. Total amounts paid pursuant to the Profit Incentive Plan will not exceed $5.0 million for calendar year 2013 and $6.0 million for calendar year 2014.

6. Hudson shall have the ability to offer specific retention incentives to certain employees as needed. These retention incentives may include, among other incentives, entering into new change of control agreements and/or promoting employees to the VP or 1st VP level. However, the benefits payable in respect of any retention incentives in respect of current employees will not exceed $6.0 million in the aggregate. Hudson shall provide notice to M&T of each new retention incentive arrangement.
7. The above retention incentives will not be included in the determination of any severance benefits or payments to be made pursuant to change of control or employment agreements. However, salary adjustments made in 2012, 2013 and 2014 for employees and officers with the title of 1st Vice President and lower (plus certain Senior Vice Presidents identified by Hudson) shall be included in the calculation of severance benefits (including without limitation under any change of control or employment agreements).
8. Equity Compensation – Hudson will have the ability to grant equity awards (deferred stock units) in 2013 and 2014, which awards will vest in three equal annual installments over a three-year period from the date of grant, provided that the three-year vesting period with respect to equity awards granted in 2013 shall commence on January 1, 2013, with the first vesting date for such awards to occur on January 1, 2014. Any such equity awards granted by Hudson in 2013 shall only be granted to employees and officers with the title of Vice President and above, and shall not be granted to individuals who already received an equity award grant in 2013 prior to the date hereof. The aggregate grant date fair market value for these awards shall be determined in accordance with past practice (except without regard for performance vesting) but in any event will not exceed $12.0 million. Such awards shall not vest or become payable or exercisable solely as a result of the Merger, provided that such awards may vest on a pro-rata basis as of the Effective Time based on the number of days elapsed from the date of grant through the Effective Time. If the Effective Time does not occur by January 1, 2014, Hudson will have the ability to issue equity awards to its non-employee directors in respect of calendar year 2014 in the ordinary course consistent with past practice.
9. Hudson will have the ability to grant salary adjustments for all employees for 2013 and 2014 in the ordinary course of business but in any event not to exceed 4% in the aggregate for each year.
10. Hudson will have the ability to make a pro-rated ESOP loan repayment contribution for calendar year 2014 in accordance with the terms of the ESOP for the period from January 1, 2014 through the end of the payroll period ending not less than two weeks prior to the Effective Time, which contributions will be made prior to the Effective Time and but for the pro-ration will be ordinary course and consistent with past practice.
11. Hudson will have the ability to hire replacement executives as needed with individual salaries not to exceed $400,000. Hudson will have the ability to enter into Hudson's standard change of control agreements with such executives.
